WESTON FOREST places No. 367 on The Globe and Mail's brand-new ranking of Canada's Top Growing Companies

Mississauga, Ontario

Weston Forest is pleased to announce it placed No. 367 on the inaugural Report on Business ranking of Canada's Top Growing Companies. Canada's Top Growing Companies ranks Canadian companies on three-year revenue growth. Weston Forest earned its spot with three-year growth of 57%.

"Weston Forest is very excited to make the Top Growing Companies list compiled by Report on Business and the Globe and Mail," says Steve Rhone, President of Weston Forest. "We have an organization that is made up of people committed to growth. It is part of our DNA, and the foundation of our business. Our success continues to be the result of the efforts of our excellent team."

Launched in 2019, the Canada's Top Growing Companies ranking program aims to celebrate entrepreneurial achievement in Canada by identifying and amplifying the success of growth-minded, independent businesses in Canada. It is a voluntary program; companies had to complete an in-depth application process in order to qualify. In total, 400 companies made the ranking this year.

The full list of 2019 winners, and accompanying editorial coverage, is published in the October issue of Report on Business magazine—out now—and online at tgam.ca/TopGrowing.

"We created the Canada's Top Growing Companies program because we believe there is much Report on Business readers can learn from the successes of the country's best entrepreneurs," says Derek DeCloet, Editor of Report on Business and Executive Editor at The Globe and Mail. "We're excited to be telling their stories."

"The 400 companies on the inaugural Report on Business ranking of Canada's Top Growing Companies ranking demonstrate ambition, innovation and tremendous business acumen," says Phillip Crawley, Publisher and CEO of The Globe and Mail. "Their contributions to the economy help to make Canada a better place, and warrant commendation."
