WESTON FOREST receives another Canada's Most Admired Corporate Cultures Award

Mississauga, ON – November 24, 2022 - Weston Forest is very pleased to announce that it is, once again, a recipient of the Canada's Most Admired™ Corporate Cultures Award, presented by Waterstone Human Capital.

“At Waterstone we know corporate culture drives performance and that it’s an organization’s greatest asset,” says Marty Parker, President and CEO of Waterstone Human Capital and Chair of the Canada's Most Admired™ program. “The 2022 award recipients demonstrate that putting culture at the center of your strategy drives growth and accelerates performance. They actively craft high-performance cultures that drive extraordinary results and serve as an inspiration for others who want to do the same.”

Steve Rhone, President & CEO of Weston Forest, had this to say: “Weston is invested in creating a people-first culture to ensure we can hire and keep the best people. This award reaffirms our belief that our brand promise of “You’ll Love Doing Business With Us” is realized by creating that culture. We are thrilled to accept this acknowledgement of our team’s efforts for the 7th consecutive year.”
